THURSDAY
New Year's Day

The daily events of our world and the prophecies of the Bible are beginning to coincide. We've been told in Scripture to study the signs and to learn the signs of the times.

So when all these things begin to happen, stand straight and look up, for your salvation is near!

LUKE 21:28 NLT

FRIDAY

A suffering person does not need a lecture—he needs a listener. He needs someone to whom he can pour out his heart or someone who will share his silence. Most of all, he needs someone who will share his grief.

Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

SUNDAY

Our Christian life, if we are to become what God wants us to be, must be one of faith plus suffering.

His suffering made Jesus a perfect Leader.

MONDAY

Remove the obstructions, tear down the barriers, and let your soul find the fulfillment of its deepest longings in fellowship with God.

Go and celebrate because of all the good things the LORD your God has given to you and your household.

TUESDAY

The important thing is to walk with Christ, to live for Christ, and to have one consuming passion—to please him. Then, whatever happens, we know that he has permitted it in order to teach us some priceless lesson and to perfect us for his service.

That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings.

PHILIPPIANS 3:10 KJV

WEDNESDAY

God proved his love on the cross. When Christ hung, and bled, and died, it was God saying to the world, “I love you.”

Since he did not spare even his own Son for us but gave him up for us all, won't he also surely give us everything else?
