

my princesses
learn to be brave

written by Stephanie Rische
illustrated by Heather Heyworth

Visit Tyndale's website for kids at www.tyndale.com/kids.

TYNDALE is a registered trademark of Tyndale House Publishers, Inc. The Tyndale Kids logo is a trademark of Tyndale House Publishers, Inc.

My Princesses Learn to Be Brave

Copyright © 2014 Tyndale House Publishers, Inc.

Illustrations by Heather Heyworth. Copyright © by Tyndale House Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved.

Designed by Jacqueline L. Nuñez

Edited by Brittany Buczynski

Scripture quotations are taken from the Holy Bible, New Living Translation, copyright © 1996, 2004, 2007, 2013 by Tyndale House Foundation.

Used by permission of Tyndale House Publishers, Inc.

Carol Stream, Illinois 60188. All rights reserved.

For manufacturing information regarding this product, please call 1-800-323-9400.

ISBN 978-1-4143-9661-3

Printed in China

20 19 18 17 16 15 14

7 6 5 4 3 2 1

What makes a princess?
I'd sure like to know.
Could I be a princess?
I wish it were so!

It's there in the Bible,
So I know that it's true.
We are God's children—
You and me, too!

Since God is our Father,
The King up above,
We are all princesses,
The ones that he loves!

See how very much
our Father loves us,
for he calls us
his children, and that is what we are!

1 John 3:1

Princess Grace straightened the crown on her head and stepped into her carriage. She was going to the castle today! It was a long trip. Once she got there, she would head straight to the steps and climb up to the tall tower.

Her friend Princess Hope would be waiting for her there!

Grace was so excited. Today Mom was taking her to the park! She and her friend Hope loved to play dress-up together and pretend they were princesses. The playground was a perfect castle for them.