

my princesses learn to share

written by Amie Carlson
illustrated by Heather Heyworth

Visit Tyndale's website for kids at www.tyndale.com/kids.

TYNDALE is a registered trademark of Tyndale House Publishers, Inc.

The Tyndale Kids logo is a trademark of Tyndale House Publishers, Inc.

My Princesses Learn to Share

Copyright © 2014 Tyndale House Publishers, Inc.

Illustrations by Heather Heyworth. Copyright © by Tyndale House Publishers, Inc. All rights reserved.

Designed by Jacqueline L. Nuñez

Edited by Stephanie Rische

Scripture quotations are taken from the Holy Bible, New Living Translation, copyright © 1996, 2004, 2007, 2013 by Tyndale House Foundation.

Used by permission of Tyndale House Publishers, Inc., Carol Stream, Illinois 60188. All rights reserved.

For manufacturing information regarding this product, please call 1-800-323-9400.

ISBN 978-1-4143-9662-0

Printed in China

20	19	18	17	16	15	14
7	6	5	4	3	2	1

What makes a princess?
I'd sure like to know.
Could I be a princess?
I wish it were so!

It's there in the Bible,
So I know that it's true.
We are God's children—
You and me, too!

Since God is our Father,
The King up above,
We are all princesses,
The ones that he loves!

See how very much
our Father loves us,
for he calls us
his children,
and that is what we are!

I John 3:1

Princess Hope was in her bedroom in the tall tower of her castle. She had a big day ahead of her—first a feast in the dining hall and then a dance with the prince! It was time to pick out something to wear for the ball. . . .

“I love playing princesses,” Hope said as she sorted through the giant box of dress-up clothes.

3 “Me, too,” Grace said. “And our moms said we get to play all afternoon!”

Hope held up her favorite dress and tried to pull it out of the box. She gave it a tug and then realized that Grace was holding on to the other side.