Introduction

I DREAMED OF BEING A PHOTOGRAPHER from the time I was a little girl. Finding things to take pictures of was pretty easy: My family had cats, dogs, and bunnies that I cherished, and I enjoyed capturing them on film. What a perfect pairing of my passions!

When I was a teenager, a dear friend's sheep gave birth to triplet lambs. The mama sheep abandoned one of them, and my friend asked whether I would take care of the lamb. Rescue a sweet, fluffy animal baby? Absolutely! With my parents' permission, Posey lived in our house and slept next to my bed. I bottle-fed her every three hours. That's when my love for farming was sparked!

In the following years, my parents added goats and chickens and more lambs to our little family farm.

I adored all of them, and photographing them brought me so much joy. I spent hours creating scrapbooks and hanging pictures of my animal friends on my bedroom walls.

Fast-forward to today. I live with my husband and our four sweet children on a small hobby farm located on the same lake I grew up on. I am inspired by so many things around me; rarely a day goes by without my kiddos and our fluffy loves being caught on camera in a photograph or video.

My pets have brought so much happiness to my life. I hope that these images and the accompanying words do the same for you, making you smile and bringing you an extra bit of joy!

Shout to the LORD, all the earth; break out in praise and sing for joy! . . . Let the earth and all living things join in.

I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.

PSALM 139:14, ESV

Hug tighter,
smile bigger,
love harder, and
offer forgiveness
without hesitation.

LINDSEY

Don't worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring its own worries. Today's trouble is enough for today.
